CHAMPAGNE & MOUSSEUX

Champagne

Champagne is not just the perfect apéritif or the wine of celebration – it happens to be extremely food-flexible with its freshness, lightness, great aromatic presence & vibrant acidity. Paul Bara “Grand Cru Bouzy” NV (Bin 308) is a beautifully rich & detailed Pinot-Noir driven cuvee. Ideal for rich fish dishes or even veal sweetbreads.

ALSACE ET JURA

Alsace

Alsace runs the flavor gamut – from very dry Pinot Auxerrois, to somewhat fruity Riesling, to relatively sweet Pinot Gris & Gewürztraminer. The careful balance in all of these wines makes them successful with a variety of dishes. Pay close attention to some of the growers in this section. They produce some of the highest quality white wines in France. Some very talented producers to notice are Sipp Mack, Albert Boxler, and Domaine Weinbach.

BEAUJOLAIS et SAVOIE

Beaujolais

Gamay Beaujolais is a youthful, exuberant grape that produces grape-y, gulpable reds.

You cannot find a better match for some of Petit Louis' classic dishes.

Try the Whole Roasted Chicken, Pâté, or Duck Leg Confit with these fruity, generous wines.

Beaujolais is also a surprisigly apt match for ticky dishes like soups, salads, and egg dishes.

HISTOIRE

“IT WAS ONE OF THE TWO RELIGIOUS EATING EXPERIENCES OF MY LIFE”

Petit Louis Bistro offers a Parisian bistro style environment in the Northern section of Baltimore City. Drawing on their personal enjoyment of similar venues throughout France, Tony & Cindy created a food and atmosphere combination which they knew Baltimore was lacking. The concept of a bistro is certainly not a new idea, but its classic definition is fairly unrealized in our culture. For hundreds of years, bistros in France have been the daily gathering spots for locals to eat, drink, socialize, celebrate, catch up on what's new in the village, or just enjoy at any time of the day. A similar role can be seen in the traditional pubs of Great Britain & trattorias in Italy.

As a local venue, a bistro's function is not unlike that of an adjunct courthouse, boardroom, or church, oftentimes serving the community decisions more effectively for the presence of food, drink & familiar lively surroundings.

Perhaps what will most distinguish a bistro here from typical “restaurants” is its ability to be many types of restaurants in one location. Most Baltimore natives have an automatic answer for where they'd go to enjoy a sandwich and a beer, a different answer for a casual dinner, and yet another for a seven course “occasion” dinner. This is not surprising considering the specialization of restaurants to which our culture has become accustomed. A bistro operating in true style would be an easy choice for all the above dining styles, as well as everything in between; it specializes in food & atmosphere without rules, limitations or requirements.

To put it simply, during Tony & Cindy's trip to the Granddaddy of all bistros, Chez L'Ami Louis in Paris (note the name), their experience there was ALL ABOUT THE FOOD. To be sure, the service there is extremely charismatic & knowledgeable, & the wine list is quite good, but you quickly realize that inside those doors, Food is King. Anything getting between the food & its consumption is quickly remedied without hesitation or apology. Every customer is expected to Eat A Lot, because it does not get any better or more basic than what they do there. When Tony & Cindy were introduced to the restaurant, they found the menu was handwritten on blank white paper – obviously without too much concern for neatness – & run through a copier; the table was tiny, & they still don't know how it sufficed; the chairs were fairly uncomfortable; the walls were not dirty but had not been tended to for at least thirty years; coats were kindly taken & then carelessly tossed onto a shelf above heads; the only clock was clogged with gout & hadn't worked for generations; the rest room was physically challenging to reach & to use; the room was stifling hot & other guests were smoking constantly. This would surely register as shocking to many American diners, but the effect yielded an outrageous level of character.

The overriding mentality there was obvious:

“Who cares what's on the walls, or how tiny the table is, when the food is this good?”

Whereas L'Ami Louis has evolved into Michelin 3-Star food in dilapidated structure, Tony & Cindy have painstakingly created a physical environment to achieve just such an attitude, for you, as our customer.

CHATEAUNEUF du PAPE

Châteauneuf du Pape

I drink (note: drink, not taste, think about, ponder over, etc) more Châteauneuf du Pape than anything else.

Why? For satisfaction, complexity, interest, flexibility with food and a large window of drinkability, a good Châteauneuf du Pape is hard to beat.
